MRS. CARLTON PRICE ELLIOTT
The Former Miss Barbara Jeanne Lee

Evening Ceremony Unites Miss Barbara Jeanne Lee, Mr. Elliott

The wedding of Miss Barbara Jeanne Lee and Carlton Price Elliott took place Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in Hebron Baptist Church, Appomattox. The Rev. John P. Leitner, minister of the church, performed the double ring ceremony and Mrs. Perry Beale, organist, and Mrs. Harold Stratton, soloist, provided a program of nuptial music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Tilden Lee, of Appomattox, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Elliott, of Rustburg.

The bride was escorted by her father who gave her in marriage. She wore a gown of peau de soie and chantilly lace designed with intermediate length sleeves, bow at neckline, and a contrived skirt ending in a full watteau chapel train. Her bouffant tiered veil of imported silk illusion was attached to a crown of lace petals centered in seed pearls, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Earl Acee, of Appomattox, was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a red direct length dress of peau de soie fashioned after the bride's gown. She carried a bouquet of red and white carnations.

Other attendants were Mrs. Wayne Lee, of Appomattox, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Virginia Thornhill, both of Lynchburg. They wore dresses styled like that of the honor attendant and carried similar bouquets.

Linda Lee Nixon, of Lynchburg was flower girl, and Gordon Lawson, of Appomattox, was ring bearer. Both are cousins of the bride.

Russell Elliott, of Rustburg, was his brother's best man, and ushers were Wayne Lee, of Appomattox, brother of the bride, Eddie Earl Elliott and Henry Lee Elliott, of Rustburg, both brothers of the groom.

After the ceremony, the parents of the bride entertained with a reception in the social hall of the church. Those assisting at the reception table were Mrs. Nancy Burnett, of Lynchburg; Mrs. Christine Reynolds, of Rustburg, Mrs. Harry Lawson, of Appomattox, Mrs. Claude Treat, of Charlottesville, and Mrs. Aaron Grosscnor, of Bassett.

The bride chose a three-piece blue knit suit, to which her orchid was added, as her going away outfit.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple will make their home in Rustburg. They are both employed in Lynchburg.

Mrs. George White has returned home after an extended visit with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Kalechem, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Lester P. Harvey had as her guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Morris, Jr. of Richmond, and Mrs. Terrell and Mrs. Fritz of Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Annual Cub Dinner Set 16th

Blue And Gold Banquet

The annual Blue and Gold banquet to mark the anniversary of Cub Scouting will be held Tuesday, Feb. 16 at 6:30 p.m. at Memorial Methodist Church, according to Ben Marshall, Pack 586 leader.

Parents and sisters and brothers of each Cub Scout are asked to bring plates and eating utensils for their own family — plus dishes of food of their own choice to be served buffet style along with other families' contributions to the dinner.

Special guests will include Rev Forrest Wagoner who will present the Cub Scout charter for 1965 to the Pack, plus other civic leaders active in Cub Scouting here.
